

The pleasures of life can be both innocent and guilty.
Stewie Strubbin ERIC Home of the BIG WOODY®
A Village Plaza in Liberty, KS 67220-2646-0000 Monday - Thursday

Making an im'pression
Vehicle cranes into press building
Page 2

Reddon Seniors celebrate
Baccalaureate
Page 3

Energy rate increase set for early 2015
Page 2

Parents rail against
Common Core math
Page 2

Miss Kansas Pageant announces 'Kansas Choice Award'
Page 10

United Way
Seaward County United Way
United Way one of area's largest charities

Report: Thousands of convicted criminals freed while awaiting deportation proceedings

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY MAY 14, 2014
PLAYOFF PICTURE
Local Cal High League starts postseason tonight Saturday

Miss Kansas Pageant announces 'Kansas Choice Award'
The 2014 Miss Kansas Pageant will be held on Saturday, May 17, at the historic Waldorf Astoria Hotel in Kansas City. The winner of the pageant will represent Kansas at the Miss USA pageant in Las Vegas, Nevada. The pageant is a celebration of the state's beauty, talent, and spirit.

Report: Thousands of convicted criminals freed while awaiting deportation proceedings
A report from the American Immigration Law Initiative (AILI) reveals that thousands of convicted criminals are being released from federal custody while awaiting deportation proceedings. The report states that the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has a backlog of over 100,000 cases, and that many of these cases involve individuals with criminal records. The report also notes that the release of these individuals poses a significant risk to public safety.