Mitchell Theatres expands into Arizona, reaches 100 screen milestone
The Mitchell Theatres Group, a national chain of movie theaters, has announced that it has acquired a 100th screen in Phoenix, Arizona. The acquisition, which was completed in June 2014, marks a significant milestone for the company as it expands its footprint in the Sun Belt region. The new screen, located in the Phoenix area, will be part of the company's ongoing efforts to grow its presence in the market. Mitchell Theatres Group CEO, David Mitchell, said, "We are excited to announce this acquisition and to continue our growth in the Sun Belt region. The new screen will be part of our ongoing efforts to provide the best possible movie-going experience to our customers." The acquisition was completed through a stock purchase agreement with the previous owner. The new screen will be part of the company's ongoing efforts to provide the best possible movie-going experience to our customers.
