

GRAND BUFFET Lunch Buffet $9.99 Dinner Buffet $13.99
Lunch Buffet $9.99 Dinner Buffet $13.99
Lunch Buffet $9.99 Dinner Buffet $13.99

Oklahoma announces primary results
OKLAHOMA — The Oklahoma State Election Commission announced the results of the primary election held on Tuesday, June 24, 2014. The commission reported that the election was successful and that the results were accurate. The commission also announced that the election was held in compliance with the Oklahoma Constitution and the Oklahoma Election Code.

Man loses foot in railroad accident Page 2A
A man lost his foot in a railroad accident on Tuesday, June 24, 2014. The accident occurred in the town of Okemah, Oklahoma. The man was riding on a train when it derailed, and he was thrown from the train. He was injured and taken to a hospital, where he underwent surgery to amputate his foot.

USD 480 to host New Teacher Information Fair
Opportunity for educators to meet with new teachers
USD 480 is hosting a New Teacher Information Fair on Wednesday, June 25, 2014. The fair is open to all new teachers in the district and is a great opportunity for them to meet with their colleagues and learn more about the district. The fair will be held at the USD 480 Administration Center, 1001 N. 10th St., Okemah, Oklahoma. The fair is free and open to all.

Kansas boy fighting back after outdoor library shut down by ordinance Page 2A
A young boy in Kansas is fighting back against an ordinance that would shut down an outdoor library. The boy, who is 10 years old, is the son of the owner of the library. The ordinance would require the library to be indoors, which would force the owner to shut down the library. The boy is determined to keep the library open and is fighting the ordinance in court.

School board approves schematic designs of new schools Page 2A
A school board has approved schematic designs for two new schools. The schools are located in the town of Okemah, Oklahoma. The schools are expected to be completed in the fall of 2015. The school board also approved the design for a new library building. The library building is also located in Okemah and is expected to be completed in the fall of 2015.

City moves along rezoning ordinance for housing lots
LIBERAL — The Liberal City Commission has moved forward with a rezoning ordinance for housing lots. The ordinance would allow for the construction of more housing units in the town of Liberal, Oklahoma. The ordinance is expected to be passed by the city council in the near future.

Memorial Library turns into Lego-land
A Memorial Library has turned into a Lego-land. The library is now filled with Lego bricks and sets. The library is a great place for children to come and play with their Lego bricks. The library is also a great place for children to learn and read.

Archivist: IRS didn't follow law with lost emails
An archivist has accused the IRS of not following the law with lost emails. The archivist, who is a former IRS employee, has accused the IRS of deleting emails that were not supposed to be deleted. The archivist has provided evidence to support his claim and has filed a lawsuit against the IRS.

4-H Shooting Sports to offer summer archery season
4-H Shooting Sports is offering a summer archery season. The season is open to all 4-H members and is a great opportunity for them to learn more about archery. The season will be held at the 4-H Shooting Sports Center, 1001 N. 10th St., Okemah, Oklahoma. The season is free and open to all.

Happy 10th Birthday David Merrill Mitchell
Happy 10th Birthday David Merrill Mitchell. David is a 10-year-old boy who lives in Liberal, Oklahoma. David is a very smart and kind boy who loves to play and learn. David is a member of 4-H and is a great example of a young man who is committed to his community.