College forced to raise mill levy

Lewisville voters rejected state aid cited for mill levy increase

By Staff Writer
Lewisville voters rejected a $10 million increase in the city's mill levy, forcing the city to raise the levy to meet the state's requirements. The city council voted 5-2 to reject the increase, which would have raised the mill levy from 1.5 to 2.5. The city is now required to raise the mill levy to 2.0 to meet the state's requirements. The city council will meet again on July 29 to discuss the issue.

Beretta: Gun law forcing move out of Maryland

By Staff Writer
Beretta, the Italian gun manufacturer, has announced that it is moving its U.S. headquarters from Maryland to Virginia. The company cited a new Maryland gun law that restricts the sale of assault weapons as the reason for the move. Beretta has been in Maryland since 1987. The company is moving to Virginia because of the state's more lenient gun laws.
