

Don't ever hit a person with glasses. Hit him with a baseball bat.
Friday Night Catfish & Seafood Boats, Pool & Eye Shrimps & Cysters on the Half Shell
At Village Plaza (Corner of 4th & Main) 7-10 p.m. $10.00
www.kansas.com/entertainment/food-drink

Voters: Watch for 'phony' Vote Fred Patton.
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A new effort to get voters to support a ballot measure to amend the state constitution to allow for the sale of marijuana for medical purposes is being pushed out by a group of voters who say they are not interested in the issue. The group, called "Vote Fred Patton," is urging voters to support a ballot measure that would allow for the sale of marijuana for medical purposes. The group says it is not interested in the issue and is only interested in supporting Fred Patton for governor.

Prize-winning goat disappears from Colorado fair
By David H. Johnson
DENVER (AP) — A prize-winning goat that was the star of a Colorado fair disappeared on Monday. The goat, named "Goat," was the winner of the "Best of Breed" award in the "Goat" class. The goat was stolen from the fairgrounds on Monday night. The fairgrounds are located in Golden, Colorado. The goat was valued at $1,000. The fairgrounds are located at 10000 E. 10th Ave., Golden, Colorado. The goat was stolen from the fairgrounds on Monday night.

Animals take center stage at fair
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A fair in Kansas City is celebrating its 100th anniversary with a focus on animals. The fair, called "Animals Take Center Stage," is being held at the Fairgrounds in Kansas City. The fair features a variety of animals, including horses, dogs, cats, and birds. The fair is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, August 1, 2014. The fair is located at the Fairgrounds in Kansas City. The fair is a celebration of the state's rich animal heritage.

Michael Peterson honors veterans
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Michael Peterson, a veteran of the Vietnam War, is honoring other veterans at a ceremony in Kansas City. Peterson is the president of the American Legion Post 1234 in Kansas City. The ceremony is being held at the American Legion Post 1234 on Friday, August 1, 2014. Peterson is a decorated veteran and has served in the military for over 20 years. The ceremony is a tribute to the sacrifices of all veterans.

Medicaid denies treatment request for young man with brain injuries
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A young man with brain injuries has been denied Medicaid coverage for his treatment. The young man, named "John," is currently in a hospital in Kansas City. The hospital is requesting Medicaid coverage for his treatment, but the state has denied the request. The young man's condition is serious and he needs ongoing medical care. The denial of Medicaid coverage is a significant financial burden for the family. The young man's family is seeking legal action to force the state to cover his treatment.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 125 years

LOCAL BARGAINS
20 CASH SALES LISTED INSIDE TODAY

4-H members get creative with cookie jars
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Members of the 4-H organization in Kansas City are getting creative with their cookie jars. The members are making cookie jars that are shaped like various animals and objects. The cookie jars are being made as part of a project for the 4-H organization. The members are using cookie dough to create the jars and are using various tools and techniques to make them. The cookie jars are being made for a charity event and will be sold at the event. The members are proud of their work and are looking forward to seeing their cookie jars on display.

Dorothy entertains at 4-H Fashion Revue, see PAGE 3A
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Dorothy, a member of the 4-H organization in Kansas City, is entertaining at a fashion revue. The fashion revue is being held at the 4-H building in Kansas City. Dorothy is wearing a beautiful dress and is modeling it for the audience. The fashion revue is a popular event at the 4-H building and is attended by many people. Dorothy is a talented model and is enjoying the opportunity to showcase her fashion sense. The fashion revue is a great way for the 4-H members to show off their talents and to have fun.

Organizers prepare for National Night Out set for Tuesday
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Organizers are preparing for National Night Out, which is set for Tuesday. National Night Out is a community event that is held every year in August. The event is designed to bring neighbors together and to make the community safer. The event includes a variety of activities, including a parade, a fire station tour, and a police station tour. The event is being held in Kansas City on Tuesday, August 5, 2014. The organizers are working hard to make the event a success and are looking forward to seeing everyone at the event.

Kansas City moves to ban open carry of firearms
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kansas City is moving to ban the open carry of firearms. The city council is considering a ordinance that would prohibit the open carry of firearms in public places. The ordinance is being proposed by the city council and is expected to be passed in the near future. The ordinance is a response to the increasing number of gun-related incidents in the city. The city council is looking for ways to make the city safer and is considering this ordinance as one of the ways to do so. The ordinance is a significant step towards reducing gun violence in the city.

4-H members get creative with cookie jars
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Members of the 4-H organization in Kansas City are getting creative with their cookie jars. The members are making cookie jars that are shaped like various animals and objects. The cookie jars are being made as part of a project for the 4-H organization. The members are using cookie dough to create the jars and are using various tools and techniques to make them. The cookie jars are being made for a charity event and will be sold at the event. The members are proud of their work and are looking forward to seeing their cookie jars on display.

Organizers prepare for National Night Out set for Tuesday
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Organizers are preparing for National Night Out, which is set for Tuesday. National Night Out is a community event that is held every year in August. The event is designed to bring neighbors together and to make the community safer. The event includes a variety of activities, including a parade, a fire station tour, and a police station tour. The event is being held in Kansas City on Tuesday, August 5, 2014. The organizers are working hard to make the event a success and are looking forward to seeing everyone at the event.

Kansas City moves to ban open carry of firearms
By David H. Johnson
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kansas City is moving to ban the open carry of firearms. The city council is considering a ordinance that would prohibit the open carry of firearms in public places. The ordinance is being proposed by the city council and is expected to be passed in the near future. The ordinance is a response to the increasing number of gun-related incidents in the city. The city council is looking for ways to make the city safer and is considering this ordinance as one of the ways to do so. The ordinance is a significant step towards reducing gun violence in the city.