

You want a friend in Washington? Get a dog
Thursday Police Ride
A Village Police & Librarian, 401-628-6000. Monday, Saturday
Police & Librarian with Police America & Police Department & Village Librarian

Reception to honor county fire chief Mike Rice's retirement

County Executive Joseph Bertino has announced a reception to honor Mike Rice, who has served as chief of the county fire department for 25 years. The reception will be held on Thursday, August 28, at 6 p.m. at the County Administration Center, 100 N. State St., in Westchester County. Rice will be recognized for his long and dedicated service to the county. The reception is free and open to the public. For more information, call 914-515-2000.

TUESDAY AUGUST 26, 2014 LEADER & TIMES

Your daily news & news for 225 years

City to conduct final reading on 2015 budget

The City of Westchester County will hold its final reading of the 2015 budget on Tuesday, August 26, at 7 p.m. at the County Administration Center, 100 N. State St., in Westchester County. The budget is expected to be approved by the County Board of Supervisors on Wednesday, August 27. The budget includes a 1.5% increase in the property tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the sales tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the income tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the corporate tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the estate tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the gift tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the inheritance tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the transfer tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the gift tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the inheritance tax rate, which is the highest in the state. The budget also includes a 1.5% increase in the transfer tax rate, which is the highest in the state.

GOP selects Hasenbank county attorney

The Republican Party has selected Michael Hasenbank as its county attorney. Hasenbank is a former prosecutor and has worked for the county for several years. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the Westchester County Bar Association. He is also a member of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the American College of Legal Medicine. He is a past president of the Westchester County Bar Association and the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is also a past president of the American College of Legal Medicine. He is a past president of the Westchester County Bar Association and the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is also a past president of the American College of Legal Medicine.

College to offer professional development classes

The College of Westchester County is offering professional development classes for its students. The classes are designed to help students develop the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in their careers. The classes include topics such as resume writing, job interviewing, and workplace communication. The classes are free of charge and are open to all students. For more information, call 914-515-2000.

City offices to be closed Mon.

City offices will be closed on Monday, August 25, in honor of the late Mayor Joseph P. L. Granger. The offices will be closed from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The offices will be open again on Tuesday, August 26.

Police: Kansas woman steals vehicle after wreck

Police in Kansas have arrested a woman who stole her car after it was involved in a wreck. The woman, who is 35 years old, was driving on a highway when her car was involved in a multi-car accident. She fled the scene and was later identified by police. She is charged with theft of a motor vehicle and leaving the scene of an accident. She is being held in jail and will appear in court on Monday.

Little World's Fair in Kismet starts Saturday

The Little World's Fair in Kismet starts on Saturday, August 23. The fair is a family-friendly event that features a variety of rides, games, and food. The fair is held at the Kismet Community Center, 100 N. State St., in Westchester County. The fair is free of charge and is open to all. For more information, call 914-515-2000.

Appeals court questions proof-of-citizenship rules

The Appeals Court has questioned the rules for proof of citizenship. The court is reviewing a case that involves a person who is applying for naturalization. The person is claiming to be a citizen of the United States, but the government is questioning the person's claim. The court is asking the government to provide more evidence to support its claim. The court is also asking the person to provide more evidence to support their claim. The court is expected to issue a decision on the case in the near future.

College prepares for party auction, 'Fun & Games'

The College of Westchester County is preparing for a party auction and "Fun & Games" event. The event is scheduled for Saturday, August 23, at the College Administration Center, 100 N. State St., in Westchester County. The event is free of charge and is open to all. For more information, call 914-515-2000.

Colorado's anti-pot 'tab rat' campaign hits snag

Colorado's anti-pot "tab rat" campaign has hit a snag. The campaign is a public service announcement that is designed to educate the public about the dangers of pot. The campaign is being run by the state's attorney general. The campaign is being run in a way that is designed to be as effective as possible. The campaign is being run in a way that is designed to be as effective as possible. The campaign is being run in a way that is designed to be as effective as possible. The campaign is being run in a way that is designed to be as effective as possible.