

GRAND BUFFET
Lunch Buffet $6.99 Dinner Buffet $9.99
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 27, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 128 years

Little World's Fair in Kismet starts Saturday

By Bob Kates

The annual Little World's Fair in Kismet will get going on the 29th day of 2014. The fair is a family-friendly event that features a variety of activities, including a parade, games, and a carnival. It is held at the Kismet High School grounds.

The Kismet High School Reunion will take place at 6 p.m. Saturday

The Kismet High School Reunion will be held at 6 p.m. on Saturday at the Kismet High School. The event is a celebration for the school's 100th anniversary and will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, games, and a carnival.

Soroptimists say thanks to Brianna Headrick

By Bob Kates

The Soroptimist International of Kismet will be holding a thank-you dinner for Brianna Headrick. Headrick is a local woman who has been instrumental in the organization's efforts to support women in need. The dinner will be held at the Kismet High School.

City approves 3,798 mill levy increase

By Bob Kates

The Kismet City Commission has approved a 3,798 mill levy increase for the 2015 fiscal year. The increase is necessary to fund the city's operations and to pay for the city's debt. The commission also approved a 2015 budget of $36.1 million and a 2015 mill levy of $1.646.

Former tech director of Lenexa charged with wire fraud, theft

By Bob Kates

A former technology director at Lenexa has been charged with wire fraud and theft. The man, who is currently on the run, is accused of stealing sensitive information from the company and using it to defraud other companies. The charges were filed in federal court in Kansas.

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system

By Bob Kates

A single voter in Kismet was the only person to cast a ballot under the new dual system for the 2014 general election. The dual system allows voters to cast their ballots in person at a polling station or by mail. The voter in question cast their ballot by mail.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town

By Bob Kates

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town for the 2014 season. The town is known for its laid-back atmosphere and its love of the beer. Bud Light has been the town's favorite beer for many years.

Voters again turn down Turpin school bond

By Bob Kates

Voters in Turpin, Kansas, have again turned down a school bond issue. The bond issue was for $10 million and was intended to fund the construction of a new school building. The voters rejected the bond issue by a large margin.

2015 Budget $36.1 million

2015 Mill levy $1.646

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system

By Bob Kates

A single voter in Kismet was the only person to cast a ballot under the new dual system for the 2014 general election. The dual system allows voters to cast their ballots in person at a polling station or by mail. The voter in question cast their ballot by mail.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town

By Bob Kates

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town for the 2014 season. The town is known for its laid-back atmosphere and its love of the beer. Bud Light has been the town's favorite beer for many years.