

Keep the dream alive! Hit the snooze button!
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

Last day Sunday
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 2014
Your daily news & views for 128 years

National Assisted Living Week nears
August 28-31, 2014
This year, 100,000+ seniors will be celebrating National Assisted Living Week. The week is a time to recognize the contributions of assisted living facilities and the staff who work in them. It is also a time to raise awareness of the needs of seniors and the importance of assisted living.

Hymn and Gospel Songfest set for Sun.
The church will host a Hymn and Gospel Songfest on Sunday, September 7, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the sanctuary. The event will feature a variety of musical performances, including hymns, gospel songs, and contemporary music. Tickets are $5.00. For more information, call 336-233-1234.

Ice bucket challenge at college
The college will host an Ice Bucket Challenge on Friday, August 29, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the student center. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a trivia contest, a raffle, and a live performance. Tickets are $5.00. For more information, call 336-233-1234.

Training guide likens veterans to Oscar the Grouch
A new training guide for veterans likens them to Oscar the Grouch. The guide, titled "Oscar the Grouch: A Guide to Living with Veterans," is a humorous and informative resource for employers and colleagues. It provides tips on how to interact with veterans and how to create a supportive work environment. The guide is available for free download at www.veterans.gov.

Baker Arts to offer workshops
Baker Arts will offer a series of workshops on September 1, 2, and 3, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the arts center. The workshops will focus on various aspects of the arts, including painting, sculpture, and photography. Tickets are $10.00. For more information, call 336-233-1234.

Seward County United Way kicks off 2015 campaign
The Seward County United Way kicked off its 2015 campaign on August 28, 2014. The campaign will run through December 31, 2014. The goal of the campaign is to raise $1,000,000 to support various social service programs in Seward County. The campaign will feature a variety of activities, including a charity walk, a raffle, and a live performance. For more information, call 336-233-1234.

Human skull donated to Austin Goodwill store
A human skull was donated to the Austin Goodwill store. The skull was found in a field near Austin, Texas, and was identified as the skull of a young man who had been missing for several years. The skull was donated to the store as a memorial to the young man. The store is located at 1234 Main Street, Austin, Texas.

Woman gives birth inside Walmart
A woman gave birth to a baby inside a Walmart store. The woman was pregnant for several months and was in the store to buy some groceries. She suddenly felt a sharp pain and fell to the ground. A Walmart employee noticed her and called 911. The baby was born safely and the woman was taken to the hospital. The Walmart store is located at 1234 Main Street, Austin, Texas.

Beginning Waterside Workshop
The Beginning Waterside Workshop will be held on September 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the arts center. The workshop will focus on the basics of watercolor painting. The instructor will provide a variety of demonstrations and exercises. Tickets are $10.00. For more information, call 336-233-1234.

United Way Seward County United Way
The United Way Seward County United Way is a non-profit organization that provides social services to the community. The organization is committed to helping people in need and improving the quality of life in Seward County. The organization is located at 1234 Main Street, Austin, Texas.