

Keep the dream alive! Hit the snooze button!
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

Last day Sunday
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 2014
Your daily news & views for 128 years

National Assisted Living Week nears
Seward County is celebrating National Assisted Living Week from August 28 to September 4. The week is dedicated to recognizing the contributions of assisted living facilities and the staff who work in them. Seward County is proud to have several assisted living facilities in the county, and we are looking forward to a successful week of events and activities.

Hymn and Gospel Songfest set for Sun.
The Seward County United Way is sponsoring a Hymn and Gospel Songfest on Sunday, September 7, at 10 a.m. at the Seward County Community College. The event is free and open to the public. It will feature a variety of hymns and gospel songs performed by a choir and soloists.

Ice bucket challenge at college
The Seward County Community College is participating in the Ice Bucket Challenge. The challenge is a social media phenomenon where participants are challenged to pour a bucket of ice water over their heads and then nominate others to do the same. The college is encouraging students and faculty to participate and raise awareness for ALS.

Training guide likens veterans to Oscar the Grouch
A new training guide for veterans likens them to Oscar the Grouch. The guide is designed to help veterans adjust to civilian life and find employment. It uses the character Oscar the Grouch as a metaphor for the challenges veterans face. The guide is available for free at the Seward County Community College.

Baker Arts to offer workshops
Baker Arts is offering a series of workshops for artists. The workshops will cover a variety of topics, including painting, sculpture, and photography. The workshops are designed to help artists improve their skills and create new works of art. The workshops are free and open to the public.

Seward County United Way kicks off 2015 campaign
The Seward County United Way has kicked off its 2015 campaign. The campaign is focused on helping people in need and improving the lives of the community. The campaign will run from August 28 to September 4. The United Way is a nonprofit organization that provides financial assistance and other services to people in need.

Cocheek Workshop
The Cocheek Workshop is a series of workshops for artists. The workshops will cover a variety of topics, including painting, sculpture, and photography. The workshops are designed to help artists improve their skills and create new works of art. The workshops are free and open to the public.

Human skull donated to Austin Goodwill store
A human skull has been donated to the Austin Goodwill store. The skull was found by a person who found it in a field. The skull is being donated to the store for educational purposes. The store is a nonprofit organization that provides financial assistance and other services to people in need.

Woman gives birth inside Walmart
A woman gave birth inside a Walmart store. The woman was pregnant and went to the store to buy some supplies. She went to the bathroom and gave birth. The store manager called 911 and the woman and her baby were taken to the hospital. The baby is healthy and the woman is recovering well.

Page 1 of 1

Welcome to the new L&T! When you can't get the printed version go to www.leaderandtimes.com