

Keep the dream alive! Hit the snooze button!
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

Last day Sunday
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 2014
Your daily news & views for 128 years

National Assisted Living Week nears
August 28-31, 2014
This year, 100,000+ seniors will be celebrating National Assisted Living Week. The week is a time to recognize the contributions of assisted living facilities and the staff who work in them. It is also a time to raise awareness of the needs of seniors and the services they require.

Hymn and Gospel Songfest set for Sun.
The church will host a Hymn and Gospel Songfest on Sunday, September 7, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the sanctuary. The event is open to all and will feature a variety of musical performances.

Ice bucket challenge at college
The college is participating in the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge. The challenge is to raise awareness of ALS and to raise money for research. Participants are encouraged to pour a bucket of ice water over their heads and post a video on social media.

Training guide likens veterans to Oscar the Grouch
A new training guide for veterans likens them to Oscar the Grouch. The guide is designed to help veterans adjust to civilian life and to find employment. It includes information on job training, resume writing, and interview techniques.

Baker Arts to offer workshops
Baker Arts is offering a series of workshops for artists. The workshops will cover a variety of topics, including painting, sculpture, and photography. The workshops are designed to provide artists with the skills and techniques they need to create their own art.

Seward County United Way kicks off 2015 campaign
United Way is kicking off its 2015 campaign in Seward County. The campaign is designed to raise money for a variety of social service programs, including food banks, job training, and housing assistance. The campaign will run through the end of the year.

Coaches Workshop
A coaches workshop is being held for coaches of youth sports teams. The workshop will cover a variety of topics, including coaching techniques, team management, and safety. The workshop is designed to provide coaches with the skills and knowledge they need to be effective.

Human skull donated to Austin Goodwill store
A human skull has been donated to the Austin Goodwill store. The skull was found by a resident and was brought to the store. The store is currently looking for a home for the skull.

Woman gives birth inside Walmart
A woman gave birth to a baby inside a Walmart store. The woman was in the store when she went into labor and gave birth to a healthy baby. The incident was reported to the store manager, who called 911. The baby and mother were taken to a hospital for medical attention.

Beginning Waterside Workshop
A Beginning Waterside Workshop is being held for people who are new to waterside activities. The workshop will cover a variety of topics, including safety, equipment, and techniques. The workshop is designed to provide participants with the skills and knowledge they need to enjoy waterside activities.