

Keep the dream alive! Hit the snooze button!
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

Last day Sunday
Snooze Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 2014
Your daily news & views for 128 years

National Assisted Living Week nears
August 28-31, 2014
This year, 100,000+ seniors will be celebrating National Assisted Living Week. The week is a time to recognize the contributions of assisted living facilities and the staff who work in them. It is also a time to raise awareness of the needs of seniors and the services they require.

Hymn and Gospel Songfest set for Sun.
The church will host a Hymn and Gospel Songfest on Sunday, September 7, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the sanctuary. The event is free and open to all. It will feature a variety of hymns and gospel songs performed by the church choir and soloists.

Ice bucket challenge at college
The college will host an Ice Bucket Challenge on Friday, September 5, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the student center. The event is free and open to all. It will feature a variety of activities and games, including an ice bucket challenge.

Training guide likens veterans to Oscar the Grouch
A new training guide for veterans likens them to Oscar the Grouch. The guide is designed to help veterans adjust to civilian life and find employment. It includes information on job searching, resume writing, and interview techniques. The guide is available for free at the local library.

Baker Arts to offer workshops
Baker Arts will offer a series of workshops on September 10-12, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the arts center. The workshops will focus on various aspects of the arts, including painting, sculpture, and photography. The workshops are free and open to all.

Seward County United Way kicks off 2015 campaign
The Seward County United Way has kicked off its 2015 campaign. The campaign will run from September 1 to December 31. The goal is to raise $100,000 to support various community programs and services. The campaign will include a variety of fundraising events and activities.

Coaches Workshop
A Coaches Workshop will be held on September 15, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the community center. The workshop is designed for coaches of youth sports teams. It will cover topics such as coaching techniques, team management, and safety. The workshop is free and open to all.

Human skull donated to Austin Goodwill store
A human skull has been donated to the Austin Goodwill store. The skull was found by a local resident and was brought to the store. The store is currently looking for a buyer for the skull. The skull is being offered for sale at a low price.

Woman gives birth inside Walmart
A woman gave birth to a baby inside a Walmart store. The woman was shopping for groceries when she felt the need to go to the bathroom. She went to the restroom and gave birth to a baby. The baby was healthy and was taken to the hospital for further care.

Repeating Waterslide Workshop
A Repeating Waterslide Workshop will be held on September 20, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the arts center. The workshop is designed for artists who want to learn how to create repeating patterns in their artwork. The workshop is free and open to all.